

Key Beliefs

At MEC our key beliefs about working with young people are:

- All students can and want to learn
- Positive relationships with students and families support learning
- All behaviour has a purpose and a reason.

This means:

- Inclusive practices underpin all we do
- We seek to know and understand our students and their needs
- We consistently and explicitly teach students about expected behaviour.

